

This Friday at Macon County Public Library!

Friday, November 8 at 7 p.m. - Olga Pader will share her adventures, and misadventures, in her trip of a lifetime to faraway Nepal. Travel with her memories to a foreign land of warm and happy people, a cold and rugged landscape, magnificent mountains, ancient villages, chaotic Kathmandu, exotic cultural landscape, and serene and vibrant Buddhist monasteries.

Programs take place during the general meetings at the Macon County Public Library at 7 p.m.

These programs are open to the public.

Members are invited to send names and contact information for future topics of interest to: kbtrailrunner@yahoo.com
